

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen indianas telephone privacy law protections.

When people call to try and sell you their product no matter what they are selling it is wrong. To be stressed by people who have no busness calling you anytime they feel like it. Even when you have an unlisted number they can call you anyway. I have better ways to spend my time on this earth than be harrassed by greedy people. Thank you Jean